Silent Auction Rules

1. A bid number on the bid form is a promise to purchase an item. There will be no crossing out or erasure of bids. All sales are final and there will be no exchanges or refunds unless specified by the donor.
2. Please observe the minimum bids and bid increase amounts noted on the bid sheets. No bid starting below the minimum bid will be considered a legal bid. No bid increase below the minimum increase will be considered a legal bid. Please fill out the bid form completely.
3. You may bid on as many items as you wish, as often as you wish, up to the close of the auction. Please be advised that if your bid is the highest at the close of the auction, you will be considered the purchaser of that/those items.
4. Highest bids at closing time will be determined by the Auction Committee. In the event of a dispute, the Auction Committee will have sole and final discretion in determining the winning bidder.
5. Payment for items must be made by Saturday, October 26th at 5:00 pm at the cashier's table. Payment in the form of cash, check or credit card will be accepted.
6. Please note all conditions, restrictions, and expiration dates on items and services.

Live Auction Rules

1. To bid on a Live Auction item, attract the attention of the auctioneer by raising your bid card high above your head at the appropriate time. Each bid legally obligates the bidder to pay the bid price in full if his or her bid is deemed final by the auctioneer. Bidding is closed only by the auctioneer. Decisions of the auctioneer are final.
2. Payment for items must be made by Saturday, October 26th at 5:00 pm at the cashier's table. Payment in the form of cash, check or credit card will be accepted.
3. Please note all conditions, restrictions, and expiration dates on items and services.
